Subject: Thank you, Number portability

Thank you so much! I am a Verizon Wireless customer and the only thing preventing me from switching has been losing my cell #.

I haven't had problems with their service, but more so with their customer service and billing. They overcharged me over $200 (because of an error they made) and it took five months to handle, although in no way sufficiently. I won't bore you with details - but thank you very much and please stick to your word in enforcing your decision.

Sincerely,

Brad Weinberg
